RE: NINETY-NINTH WALES COVID-19 UPDATE

Dear Residents, Employees and Family Members,

For the second time this week, the government has changed the regulations regarding visitations.

Effective Saturday, February 12th:

- Both Primary Caregivers and Visitors 13 years + who have proof of 2 vaccines (QR code) are authorized to visit residents in both the RPA and CHSLD Wales Inc.
- Any visitor who tested positive for COVID-19 cannot visit for at least 10 days of the date of onset of symptoms
- All visitors must respect measures of wearing a mask, visor and always distancing themselves 2-metres from the resident. Visitors cannot remove their mask to drink or eat during visit
- Visiting in common areas is forbidden e.g., walking in hallway, or visiting in the solarium. Visitations are in the resident's bedroom/apartment only
- Anyone not respecting the regulations will have their visitation rights suspended
- Outings for residents living in the CHSLD are now permitted
