ABOUT THE CHSLD WALES

The Centre d'hébergement et de soins de longue durée Wales Inc. is committed to providing a safe, secure, and "milieu de vie" environment that respects the identity, dignity, and privacy of seniors suffering from cognitive and/or physical limitations. The missions of the CHSLD Wales and Résidence Wales Home are in alignment, recognizing the potential of each resident. The CHSLD Wales objective is to offer optimal quality care and services while encouraging seniors to function at their highest level possible by providing nursing care, therapy, and activities through dedicated professionals and paraprofessionals.

JOB SUMMARY

The role of the Clinical Aide is to provide support to the clinical team with the aim of alleviating non-clinical duties. In doing so, the clinical team can allocate more time toward resident care. Specific duties include:

- Replenish supplies: stock clean utility rooms, incontinence, and personal supplies
- Laundry: Put away residents' personal laundry and ensure that resident closets are organized and tidy, and ensure clothing is tagged
- Snacks & Activities: Serve snacks to residents and orchestrate activities
- Mealtime: Help serve supper (setting up, serving, cleaning up, dishes, assisting residents who are unable to feed themselves at mealtime, etc.)
- Cleaning: Wash denture cups, kidney basins, wheelchairs, and walkers

WHAT WE OFFER

Competitive salary matching the public sector ($19.69 per hour), free parking, countryside and beautiful grounds, medical and personal leaves paid by the employer, a home-like environment and a human approach, pet-friendly, and our management team is present, involved, flexible, and understanding.

COVID-19 CONSIDERATIONS

The Wales Home follows all government regulations concerning COVID-19. We work continuously to ensure the safety of our residents and employees. All Clinical Aides working five days a week are entitled to an additional premium of $100/week.
